BRUNSWICK

Herbert Bennett and family of New Lisbon, O., were at his parents at Liverpool Sunday and he brought them up to call on Alex Gibbs. It was the first time Mrs. Bennett, Sr., had been here in over a year; since she broke her hip.

Miss Lucy Riddle of Berea, spent Sunday at her cousin's, Grace Winchell's.

Mr. Mony and son Frank of Strongsville called on Eugene Williams Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Gay is the owner of a new Ford.

Mr. Bonner and family of Hinckley have moved into the Brainard house.

Mrs. George Coleman was in Akron a few days last week to visit her aunt, Mrs. Robert Guillot, who has been sick with the grippe.

As it has been a number of years since we have had a township S. S. convention here, the one held last Saturday was a good, inspiring one and the speakers all touched on subjects that were beneficial to us. Our township united with the Liverpool township and the association will be known as the Brunswick-Liverpool S. S. Association. They will meet here again another year. The following officers were elected: pres., Carroll Damon; vice pres., Fred Mayer; sec. and treas., Mrs. E. C. Miner; Home department, Supt. Edward Bauer; teacher training supt., Rev. J. H. Moxley; elementary supt., Mrs. Nellie Taylor; intermediate supt., Mrs. Mable Harrington; cradle roll supt., Mrs. Anna Linley; temperance supt., Grant Tillotson; missionary supt., A. E. Clement and the visitation supt., will be announced later.

In the preliminary spelling contest for Brunswick township Elsie Gall took first with 99 and Ora Fuller second with 96. In the high school Emma Zoschnick was first with 98 and Margaret Hogue second with 96. At Medina their standings were: Emma Zoschnick 95, Margaret Hogue, 94, Elsie Gall 90, Ora Fuller 79.

Eighth grade graduation exercises will be held in the town hall on Friday evening, April 30. County Supt. Jenks will speak and Messrs.

Lincoln, Ward and Walter Rohde will furnish the music. The graduates will sing several songs.

Wm. Benbow and wife and Will Morton, wife and daughter, have moved into Watson Carpenter's little house.

Glenn Benjamin, wife and daughter spent Sunday in Ridgeville, where he found his mother in very poor health. The grandmother Bennett is in good health for her age.

Nearly all our district schools and the primary schools close this week.

Rolla Overholt and Charles Leinseder rode to River Styx and back Monday night on business.

Henry Osterhouse and son Alva visited in Willoughby over Sunday.

Mrs. Ora Ridiker went to a Cleveland hospital Monday where on Wednesday she underwent an operation. Her sister, Mrs. H. Blakeslee of Medina, is looking after her household.

Will Strong has purchased a Buick auto.

Lula Clement of Cleveland Lakeside hospital visited at her father's, Dr. Wood's this week.

E. S. Williams and Harold Barber painted Morris Perkin's house this week, also E. C. Miner's front porch, which has an addition of a closed railing.

Stella Wilkey of Cleveland spent a few days here at her brother's, E. Wilkey's.

Ethel Waite is quite sick with typhoid fever and a nurse came Tuesday night.

It was discovered Monday that the wife of one of the employees at the Dunham Co. in Berea had small-pox. So consequently all were vaccinated Tuesday and among them was Ruth Miner.

There will be a box social for the benefit of the Brunswick base ball team Tuesday evening, April 27, at the town hall All are invited.

Wednesday evening T. I. McKean will deliver a stereopticon lecture on the Yellow Stone National Park, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Admittance free.

A hurdy-gurdy, the real harbinger of spring, visited the village Tuesday afternoon.
